5. Directors' general powers

Subject to the articles, the directors are responsible for the management of the company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the company.

6. Shareholders' reserve power

- (a) The shareholders may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.
- (b) No such special resolution invalidates anything which the directors have done before the passing of the resolution.

7. Directors' duties

- (a) The purpose of the company:
 - (i) may, if and to the extent that the directors consider it appropriate; and
 - (ii) shall, if directed by the holders of the majority of the shares by notice in writing to the company,include promoting the success of the group as a whole or of any one or more members of the group (and in this context group means the company, any other body corporate which is its holding company or subsidiary and any other body corporate which is a subsidiary of that holding company).
- (b) In the exercise of a director's duties, a director shall not be restricted by any duty of confidentiality to the company from providing information regarding the company to a holding company of the company but a director who is also a director of any holding company of the company shall owe a strict duty of confidentiality to that holding company in relation to confidential information of the holding company.

8. Directors may delegate

- (a) Subject to the articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the articles:

- (c) The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

9. Committees

- (a) Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors.
- (b) The directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from the articles if they are not consistent with them.

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

10. Directors to take decisions collectively

- (a) The general rule about decision-making by directors is that any decision of the directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with article 11.
- (b) If:
 - (i) the company only has one director; and
 - (ii) no provision of the articles requires it to have more than one director, the general rule does not apply, and the director may take decisions without regard to any of the provisions of the articles relating to directors' decision-making.

- (c) A decision may not be taken in accordance with this article 11 if the eligible directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting.

12. Calling a directors' meeting

- (a) Any director may call a directors' meeting by giving notice of the meeting to the directors or by authorising the company secretary (if any) to give such notice.
- (b) Notice of any directors' meeting must indicate:
 - (i) its proposed date and time;
 - (ii) where it is to take place; and
 - (iii) if it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.
- (c) Notice of a directors' meeting must be given to each director, but need not be in writing.
- (d) Notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the company not more than 7 days after the date on which the meeting is held. Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it.

13. Participation in directors' meetings

- (a) Subject to the articles, directors participate in a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, when:
 - (i) the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the articles; and
 - (ii) they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.
- (b) In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other.
- (c) If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is. In the absence of such a decision, the meeting is deemed to take place at the location from where the chair participates.

14. Quorum for directors' meetings

- (a) At a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.
- (b) The quorum for directors' meetings may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the directors, but subject to paragraph (c), it must never be less than two eligible directors, and unless otherwise fixed it is two eligible directors.
- (c) For the purpose of any directors' meeting (or part of a meeting) held in accordance with article 17 to authorise a director's conflict of interest, if only one eligible director is in office, the quorum is one eligible director.

- (d) If the total number of directors for the time being in office is less than the quorum required, the director or directors in office must not take any decision other than a decision:
 - (i) to appoint further directors; or
 - (ii) to call a general meeting so as to enable the shareholders to appoint further directors.

15. Chairing of directors' meetings

- (a) The directors may appoint a director to chair their meetings.
- (b) The person so appointed for the time being is known as the chair.
- (c) The directors may terminate the chair's appointment at any time.
- (d) If the chair is not participating in a directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating directors may appoint one of themselves to chair it.

DIRECTORS' INTERESTS

16. Directors' interests in relation to transactions or arrangements with the company

The relevant provisions of the Companies Act (including without limitation sections 177 and 182 of the Companies Act) shall apply in relation to declarations of interests in proposed and existing transactions or arrangements with the company.

17. Directors' interests other than in relation to transactions or arrangements with the company

- (a) If a situation (a relevant situation) arises in which a director has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the company (including, without limitation, in relation to the exploitation of any property, information or opportunity, whether or not the company could take advantage of it but excluding any situation which cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest) the following provisions shall apply if the conflict of interest does not arise in relation to a transaction or arrangement with the company:

- (i) if the relevant situation arises from the appointment or proposed appointment of a person as a director of the company:

- (A) the directors (other than the director, and any other director with a similar interest, who shall not be counted in the quorum at the meeting and shall not vote on the resolution); or
- (B) the shareholders (by ordinary resolution or by notice in writing given to the company by the holders of a majority of the shares), may resolve to authorise the appointment of the director and the relevant situation on such terms as they may determine;

- (ii) if the relevant situation arises in circumstances other than in paragraph (i):

- (A) the directors (other than the director and any other director with a similar interest who shall not be counted in the quorum at the meeting and shall not vote on the resolution); or
- (B) the shareholders (by ordinary resolution or by notice in writing given to the company by the holders of a majority of the shares), may resolve to authorise the relevant situation and the continuing performance by the director of the director's duties on such terms as they may determine.

- (b) Any reference in paragraph (a) to a conflict of interest includes a conflict of interest and duty and a conflict of duties.
- (c) Any terms determined by the directors or the shareholders under paragraphs (a)(i) or (a)(ii) may be imposed at the time of the authorisation or may be imposed or varied subsequently by either the directors or the shareholders and may include (without limitation):
 - (i) whether the interested directors may vote (and be counted in the quorum at any meeting) in relation to any decision relating to the relevant situation;
 - (ii) the exclusion of the interested directors from all information and discussion by the company of the relevant situation; and
 - (iii) (without prejudice to the general obligations of confidentiality) the application to the interested directors of a strict duty of confidentiality to the company for any confidential information of the company in relation to the relevant situation.
- (d) Any authorisation given under paragraphs (a)(i) or (a)(ii) may be withdrawn by either the directors or the shareholders by giving notice to the director concerned.
- (e) An interested director must act in accordance with any terms determined by the directors or the shareholders under paragraphs (a)(i) or (a)(ii).
- (f) Except as specified in paragraph (a), any proposal made to the directors and any authorisation by the directors in relation to a relevant situation shall be dealt with in the same way as any other matter may be proposed to and decided by the directors in accordance with the articles.
- (g) Any authorisation of a relevant situation given by the directors or the shareholders under paragraph (a) may provide that, where the interested director obtains (other than through the director's position as a director of the company) information that is confidential to a third party, the director will not be obliged to disclose it to the company or to use it in relation to the company's affairs in circumstances where to do so would amount to a breach of that confidence.
- (h)
 - (i) If the directors make an authorisation under paragraph (a), impose or vary the terms of an authorisation under paragraph (c), or withdraw an authorisation under paragraph (d), they shall, as soon as reasonably practicable, notify the shareholders of this fact and provide, where applicable, any relevant particulars regarding the authorisation or its terms.
 - (ii) If the shareholders make an authorisation under paragraph (a), impose or vary the terms of an authorisation under paragraph (c), or withdraw an authorisation under paragraph (d), they shall, as soon as reasonably practicable, notify the directors of this fact and provide, where applicable, any relevant particulars regarding the authorisation or its terms.

- (i) (i) A director shall, as soon as reasonably practicable, declare the nature and extent of the director's interest in a relevant situation within paragraph (a)(i) or (a)(ii) to the other directors and the shareholders.

Failure to comply with this requirement does not affect the underlying duty to make the declaration of interest.

- (ii) If a declaration of interest in relation to a relevant situation proves to be, or becomes, inaccurate or incomplete, a further declaration must be made.

18. Directors' interests generally and voting

- (a) Subject to the Companies Act and to articles 16 and 17, a director notwithstanding holding the office of director:

- (b) Subject to articles 16 and 17 and to any contrary direction from the holders of a majority of the shares, a director shall be entitled to vote on any decision concerning any matter in which the director has, directly or indirectly, an interest or a duty.

- (c) In the case of an alternate director, an interest of the alternate's appointor shall be treated as an interest of the alternate in addition to any interest which the alternate otherwise has.

- (d) Subject to the Companies Act, the company may, by ordinary resolution or by notice in writing given to the company by the holders of a majority of the shares, suspend or relax the provisions of this article 18 to any extent or ratify any contract, transaction or arrangement not duly authorised by reason of a contravention of this article 18.

- (e) Where proposals are under consideration concerning the appointment of two or more directors to offices or employments with the company or any body corporate in which the company is interested, the proposals may be divided and considered in relation to each director separately and (provided a director is not otherwise precluded from voting) each of the directors concerned shall be entitled to vote (and to form part of the quorum) in respect of each proposal except that concerning that director's own appointment.

- (f) Subject to paragraph (g), if a question arises at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting and quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chair whose ruling in relation to any director other than the chair is to be final and conclusive.
- (g) If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the chair, the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the chair is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting and quorum purposes.

19. Records of decisions to be kept

The directors must ensure that the company keeps a record, in writing, for at least 10 years from the date of the decision recorded, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the directors.

20. Directors' discretion to make further rules

Subject to the articles, the directors may make any rule which they think fit about how they take decisions, and about how such rules are to be recorded or communicated to directors.

APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

21. Methods of appointing directors

- (a) Any person who is willing to act as a director, and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a director:
 - (i) by ordinary resolution; or
 - (ii) by a decision of the directors.

Articles 21 and 22 shall be amended accordingly.

- (a) Subject to the articles, an alternate may act as an alternate director to more than one director and has the same rights, in relation to any decision of the directors as the alternate's appointor.
- (b) Except as the articles specify otherwise, alternate directors:
 - (i) are deemed for all purposes to be directors;
 - (ii) are liable for their own acts and omissions;
 - (iii) are subject to the same restrictions as their appointors; and
 - (iv) are not deemed to be agents of or for their appointors, and, in particular, each alternate director shall be entitled to receive notice of all directors' meetings and of all committee meetings of directors of which the alternate director's appointor is a member.

- (c) Subject to the articles, a person who is an alternate director but not a director:
 - (i) may be counted as participating for the purposes of determining whether a quorum is present (but only if that person's appointor is not participating); and
 - (ii) may otherwise participate in a unanimous decision of the directors (but only if the alternate director's appointor is an eligible director in relation to that decision and is not participating).

No alternate may be counted as more than one director for such purposes.

- (d) An alternate director is not entitled to receive any remuneration from the company for serving as an alternate director except such part of the alternate's appointor's remuneration as the appointor may direct by notice in writing made to the company.

29. Alternates voting at directors' meetings

Subject to the articles, a director who is also an alternate director has an additional vote at a directors' meeting on behalf of each appointor who is:

- (a) not participating in the directors' meeting; and
- (b) would have been an eligible director if participating in it personally.

No alternate may be counted as more than one director for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present.

30. Termination of alternate directorship

An alternate director's appointment as an alternate terminates:

- (a) when the alternate's appointor revokes the appointment by notice to the company in writing specifying when it is to terminate;

- (b) on the occurrence in relation to the alternate of any event which, if it occurred in relation to the alternate's appointor, would result in the termination of the appointor's appointment as a director;
- (c) on the death of the alternate's appointor;

- (b) The authority contained in article 33(a) shall expire on the day five years after the date of the adoption of these articles but the company may, before the authority expires, make an offer or agreement which would or might require shares to be allotted or rights to be granted after it expires.
- (c) Subject to the articles, but without prejudice to article 33(a) or to the rights attached to any existing share, the company may issue further classes of shares with such rights or restrictions as may be determined by ordinary resolution.
- (d) Sections 561 and 562 of the Companies Act are excluded.
- (e) The company may issue shares which are to be redeemed, or are liable to be redeemed at the option of the company or the holder, and the directors may determine the terms, conditions and manner of redemption of any such shares.
- (f) In the event that rights and restrictions attaching to shares are determined by ordinary resolution or by the directors pursuant to this article, those rights and restrictions shall apply, in particular in place of any rights or restrictions that would otherwise apply by virtue of the Companies Act in the absence of any provisions in the articles of a company, as if those rights and restrictions were set out in the articles.

34. Company not bound by less than absolute interests

Except as required by law, no person is to be recognised by the company as holding any share upon any trust, and except as otherwise required by law or the articles, the company is not in any way to be bound by or recognise any interest in a share other than the holder's absolute ownership of it and all the rights attaching to it.

35. Share certificates

- (a) The company must issue each shareholder, free of charge, with one or more certificates in respect of the shares which that shareholder holds.
- (b) Every certificate must specify:
 - (i) in respect of how many shares, of what class, it is issued;

 - (iii) that the shares are fully paid; and
 - (iv) any distinguishing numbers assigned to them.
- (c) No certificate may be issued in respect of shares of more than one class.
- (d) If more than one person holds a share, only one certificate may be issued in respect of it.
- (e) Certificates must:
 - (i) have affixed to them the company's common or official seal and in the case of an official seal, unless otherwise determined by the directors, the certificate does not need to be signed; or
 - (ii) be otherwise executed in accordance with the Companies Act.

36. Replacement share certificates

37. Share rights and restrictions

Income and dividends

- (a) Subject to: (i) the board recommending payment of the same; and (ii) the remaining provisions of this article 37 (including prior payment of any preference dividend due under article 37(b)) any available profits which the company may determine to distribute in respect of any financial year shall be distributed amongst the holders of the ordinary shares according to the number of such ordinary shares held by the relevant holder of the ordinary shares at the relevant time.
- (b) The company shall, without resolution of the board or of the shareholders and before application of any profits to reserve or for any other purpose, accrue in respect of each preference share a fixed cumulative preferential dividend (the preference dividend).
- (c) The preference dividend will accrue at the annual rate of 5.25% (subject to the margin ratchet applicable to Facility B under and as defined in the Senior Facilities Agreement, mutatis mutandis) plus EURIBOR (together, the interest rate) of the issue price per preference share accruing and compounding in line with the relevant interest periods selected under the Senior Facilities Agreement and/or the accrual and compounding of interest under the Senior Facilities Agreement.
- (d) The preference dividend shall be paid on the date of redemption of the relevant shares, to the person registered as the holder of the relevant share or shares on that date. The preference dividend shall be deemed to accrue from day to day after as well as before the commencement of a winding up and shall therefore be payable by a liquidator in respect of any period after such commencement in priority to other claims or rights of shareholders in respect of share capital.
- (e) The preference dividend shall, provided the company has sufficient available profits out of which to pay the same and notwithstanding that such dividend is expressed to be cumulative, automatically become a debt due from and immediately payable by the company on the relevant payment date specified in article 37(d).
- (f) Where by reason of the company having insufficient available profits it is in arrears with the payment of any preference dividend, the first available profits arising thereafter shall be applied first, in or towards paying off: (i) first all accruals and/or unpaid amounts of preference dividend; and (ii) second in or towards redeeming all preference shares which have not been redeemed on or by their due date for redemption in accordance with articles 37(h) to 37(r) (inclusive).
- (g) The company shall procure (so far as it is able) that each of its subsidiaries and each of its subsidiary undertakings which has available profits shall, from time to time, declare and pay to the company (or, as the case may be, the relevant group company that is the immediate holding company or parent undertaking) such dividends as are necessary to permit lawful and prompt payment by the company of preference dividends and the redemption of any preference shares on their due date for redemption.

Redemption rights

- (h) The preference shares shall be redeemed as follows:

- (i) the company may, with the prior written consent from the holders of the relevant preference shares, redeem the preference shares at any time; and
 - (ii) the company shall redeem all the preference shares then in issue on the Facilities Redemption Date and in any event on the date falling 84 months following the Closing Date of the Senior Facilities Agreement.
- (i) Where preference shares are to be redeemed in accordance with article 37(h), the company shall give to the holders of the preference shares falling to be redeemed prior notice in writing of the redemption (a company redemption notice). The company redemption notice shall specify the particular preference shares to be redeemed and the date fixed for redemption.
 - (j) Notwithstanding article 37(h), the holders of preference shares may at any time require the company, by serving on it a notice (a shareholder redemption notice), to redeem such amount of preference shares as is specified in the shareholder redemption notice.
 - (k) The holders of the preference shares in issue at the relevant time shall be entitled to withdraw the shareholder redemption notice if they serve the company with written notice to that effect before the redemption takes place.
 - (l) Where a shareholder redemption notice has been duly given, the company shall be obliged, subject to having sufficient available profits with which to redeem the same, to redeem the preference shares specified in the shareholder redemption notice on the second business day following the receipt of such notice (or such earlier date agreed between the company and the holders of the preference shares to be redeemed) (which day shall be the date fixed for redemption).
 - (m) If the company is unable, because of having insufficient available profits or because of the provisions of article 48 (Overriding provisions), to redeem in full the relevant number of preference shares on the date fixed for redemption, the company shall redeem as many of such preference shares as can lawfully and properly be redeemed and the company shall redeem the balance as soon as it is lawfully and properly able to do so.
 - (n) If the company is at any time redeeming fewer than all the preference shares from time to time in issue, the number of preference shares to be redeemed shall be apportioned between those holders of preference shares pro rata according to the number of preference shares held by them respectively at the date fixed for redemption.
 - (o) On the date fixed for redemption, each of the holders of the preference shares falling to be redeemed shall be bound to deliver to the company, at the company's registered office, the certificate(s) for such preference shares (or an indemnity, in a form reasonably satisfactory to the board, in respect of any lost certificate) in order that the same may be cancelled. Upon such delivery, the company shall pay to the holder (or, in the case of any joint holders, to the holder whose name stands first in the company's register of members in respect of such shares) the amount due in respect of such redemption against delivery of a proper receipt for the redemption monies.
 - (p) If any certificate delivered to the company pursuant to article 37(o) includes any preference shares not falling to be redeemed on the date fixed for redemption, a new certificate in respect of those shares shall be issued to the holders(s) thereof as soon as practicable thereafter (and in any event, within 20 business days thereafter).
 - (q) There shall be paid on the redemption of each preference share an amount equal to:

- (i) 100% of the issue price thereof; and
- (ii) all accruals and/or unpaid amounts of preference dividend in respect thereof, calculated down to and including the date of actual payment, and such aggregate amount shall, subject to the company having available profits or other monies which may be lawfully applied for such redemption, at that time become a debt due from and immediately payable by the company to the holders of the preference shares.

- (r) If the company is unable to pay the amounts referred to in article 37(q) in full on a date fixed for redemption by reason of having insufficient available profits or not having other monies which may be lawfully applied for such redemption, then the amount so unpaid shall be increased by an amount equal to the interest which would have accrued had the interest on the unpaid amount been charged at the interest rate in respect of the period from and including the due date down.

Return of capital rights

- (s) On a return of capital on liquidation or otherwise (except on a redemption or purchase by the company of any shares), the surplus assets of the company remaining after the payment of its liabilities (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any debts arising from non-payment of preference dividend) and all other sums payable in priority shall be applied in the following order:
 - (i) in priority to any payments to be made pursuant to article 37(s)(ii), in paying to each holder of preference shares in respect of each preference share of which it is the holder, an amount equal to: (i) 100% of the issue price thereof; and (ii) the aggregate amount of any accruals and/or unpaid amounts of preference dividend attributable to each such preference share, in respect of which each such preference share shall rank pari passu, such that the preference dividends shall be paid pro rata to the relevant holder's holding of preference shares until such point as, in respect of any preference share, the issue price and the accrued preference dividend have been paid (to be calculated down to and including the date of the return of capital and to be payable irrespective of whether such dividend would have been unlawful by reason of there being insufficient available profits); and
 - (ii) the balance of such assets (if any) after all payments to be made in priority shall be distributed amongst the holders of the ordinary shares according to the number of such ordinary shares held by the relevant ordinary shareholder at the relevant time.
- (t) The preference shares shall not confer on the holders of such preference shares any right of participation in the distribution of assets of the company on a return of capital beyond the amount of issue price and accrued but unpaid preference dividends on such preference shares at the time of distribution.

Voting

- (u) Every holder of ordinary shares shall have one vote in respect of every ordinary share held by him.
- (v) The preference shares shall carry no right to receive notice of, attend or vote in any circumstances at any general meeting of the company or vote for the purposes of any written resolution of the company (other than in respect of a variation of the class rights of the preference shares in accordance with article 57).

38. Share transfers

- (a) Shares may be transferred by means of an instrument of transfer in any usual form or any other form approved by the directors, which is executed by or on behalf of the transferor.
- (b) No fee may be charged for registering any instrument of transfer or other document relating to or affecting the title to any share.
- (c) The company may retain any instrument of transfer which is registered.
- (d) The transferor remains the holder of a share until the transferee's name is entered in the register of members as holder of it.
- (e) The directors may refuse to register the transfer of a share unless:
 - (i) it is lodged at the registered office or at such place as the directors may appoint and is accompanied by the certificate for the shares to which it relates and such other evidence as the directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer;
 - (ii) it is in respect of one class of shares only; and
 - (iii) it is in favour of not more than four transferees.
- (f) Notwithstanding anything contained in these articles, the directors shall not decline to register (or suspend the registration of) any transfer of shares where such transfer:
 - (i) is to:
 - (A) a bank or financial institution or to a trust, fund or other entity which is regularly engaged in or established for the purpose of making, purchasing or investing in loans, securities or other financial assets or to an affiliate thereof (any such entity a financial institution) or to any holders of any bonds or notes issued by the company or any of its subsidiaries or holding companies (bond holders) or an agent or trustee for any financial institution and/or any bond holders where a security interest has been or is purported to be granted over those shares (each a security) that benefits a financial institution and/or any bond holders; and/or
 - (B) a company or other entity to whom such shares are transferred at the direction of a financial institution and/or any bond holders or any agent or trustee on their behalf and/or any administrative receiver, administrator, receiver or receiver and manager or similar entity (a receiver) pursuant to powers granted to it under any security; and
 - (ii) is delivered to the company for registration in order to perfect or protect any security of a financial institution and/or any bond holders; or
 - (iii) is executed by a financial institution and/or any bond holders or any agent or trustee on their behalf or receiver pursuant to a power of sale or other such power under any security.

39. Transmission of shares

- (a) If title to a share passes to a transmittee, the company may only recognise the transmittee as having any title to that share.
- (b) A transmittee who produces such evidence of entitlement to shares as the directors may properly require:
 - (i) may, subject to the articles, choose either to become the holder of those shares or to have them transferred to another person; and
 - (ii) subject to the articles, and pending any transfer of the shares to another person, has the same rights as the holder had.
- (c) But transmittees do not have the right to attend or vote at a general meeting, or agree to a proposed written resolution, in respect of shares to which they are entitled, by reason of the holder's death or bankruptcy or otherwise, unless they become the holders of those shares.

40. Exercise of transmittees' rights

- (a) Transmittees who wish to become the holders of shares to which they have become entitled must notify the company in writing of that wish.
- (b) If the transmittee wishes to have a share transferred to another person, the transmittee must execute an instrument of transfer in respect of it.
- (c) Any transfer made or executed under this article 40 is to be treated as if it were made or executed by the person from whom the transmittee has derived rights in respect of the share, and as if the event which gave rise to the transmission had not occurred.

41. Transmittees bound by prior notices

If a notice is given to a shareholder in respect of shares and a transmittee (or a transferee nominated by such transmittee pursuant to article 40) is entitled to those shares, the transmittee (or transferee) is bound by the notice if it was given to the shareholder before the transmittee's (or transferee's) name has been entered in the register of members.

DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

42. Procedure for declaring dividends

- (a) The company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends, and the directors may decide to pay interim dividends.
- (b) A dividend must not be declared unless the directors have made a recommendation as to its amount. Such a dividend must not exceed the amount recommended by the directors.
- (c) No dividend may be declared or paid unless it is in accordance with shareholders' respective rights.

- (d) Unless the shareholders' resolution to declare or directors' decision to pay a dividend, or the terms on which shares are issued, specify otherwise, it must be paid by reference to each shareholder's holding of shares on the date of the resolution or decision to declare or pay it.
- (e) If the company's share capital is divided into different classes, no interim dividend may be paid on shares carrying deferred or non-preferred rights if, at the time of payment, any preferential dividend is in arrear.
- (f) The directors may pay at intervals any dividend payable at a fixed rate if it appears to them that the profits available for distribution justify the payment.
- (g) If the directors act in good faith, they do not incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring preferred rights for any loss they may suffer by the lawful payment of an interim dividend on shares with deferred or non-preferred rights.

43. Payment of dividends and other distributions

- (a) Where a dividend or other sum which is a distribution is payable in respect of a share, it must be paid by one or more of the following means:
 - (i) transfer to a bank or building society account specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide;
 - (ii) sending a cheque made payable to the distribution recipient by post to the distribution recipient at the distribution recipient's registered address (if the distribution recipient is a holder of the share), or (in any other case) to an address specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide;
 - (iii) sending a cheque made payable to such person by post to such person at such address as the distribution recipient has specified either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide; or
 - (iv) any other means of payment as the directors agree with the distribution recipient either in writing or by such other means as the directors decide.
- (b) In the articles, the distribution recipient means, in respect of a share in respect of which a dividend or other sum is payable:
 - (i) the holder of the share; or
 - (ii) if the share has two or more joint holders, whichever of them is named first in the register of members; or
 - (iii) if the holder is no longer entitled to the share by reason of death or bankruptcy, or otherwise by operation of law, the transmittee.
- (c)

44. No interest on distributions

45. Unclaimed distributions

(a) All dividends or other sums which are:

- (i) payable in respect of shares; and
- (ii) unclaimed after having been declared or become payable,

may be invested or otherwise made use of by the directors for the benefit of the company until claimed.

(b) The payment of any such dividend or other sum into a separate account does not make the company a trustee in respect of it.

(c) If:

- (i) twelve years have passed from the date on which a dividend or other sum became due for payment; and
- (ii) the distribution recipient has not claimed it, the distribution recipient is no longer entitled to that dividend or other sum and it ceases to remain owing by the company.

46. Non-cash distributions

(a) Subject to the terms of issue of the share in question, the company may, by ordinary resolution on the recommendation of the directors, decide to pay all or part of a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by transferring non-cash assets of equivalent value (including, without limitation, shares or other securities in any company).

(b) For the purposes of paying a non-cash distribution, the directors may make whatever arrangements they think fit, including, where any difficulty arises regarding the distribution:

- (i) fixing the value of any assets;
- (ii) paying cash to any distribution recipient on the basis of that value in order to adjust the rights of recipients; and
- (iii) vesting any assets in trustees.

47. Waiver of distributions

- (a) Distribution recipients may waive their entitlement to a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by giving the company notice in writing to that effect, but if:
- (i) the share has more than one holder; or
 - (ii) more than one person is entitled to the share, whether by reason of the death or bankruptcy of one or more joint holders, or otherwise, the notice is not effective unless it is expressed to be given, and signed, by all the holders or persons otherwise entitled to the share.

48. Overriding provisions

The company shall not pay any dividends on its shares or purchase its shares if to do so would cause the company to be in breach of the provisions of any Financing Document.

SHARE BUYBACKS

49. Buybacks out of capital

The company may purchase its own shares in accordance with (and up to the maximum limits set out in) section 692(1ZA) of the Companies Act.

- (a) Subject to the articles, the directors may, if they are so authorised by an ordinary resolution:
- (i) decide to capitalise any profits of the company (whether or not they are available for distribution) which are not required for paying a preferential dividend, or any sum standing to the credit of the company's share premium account or capital redemption reserve; and
 - (ii) appropriate any sum which they so decide to capitalise (a capitalised sum) to the persons who would have been entitled to it if it were distributed by way of dividend (the persons entitled) and in the same proportions.
- (b) Capitalised sums must be applied:
- (i) on behalf of the persons entitled; and
 - (ii) in the same proportions as a dividend would have been distributed to them.
- (c) Any capitalised sum may be applied in paying up new shares of a nominal amount equal to the capitalised sum which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct.
- (d) A capitalised sum which was appropriated from profits available for distribution may be applied in paying up new debentures of the company which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct.

- (e) Subject to the articles the directors may:
- (i) apply capitalised sums in accordance with paragraphs (c) and (d) partly in one way and partly in another;
 - (ii) make such arrangements as they think fit to deal with shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions under this article 50 (including the issuing of fractional certificates or the making of cash payments); and

- (d) In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more shareholders attending it are in the same place as each other.
- (e) Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them.

 - (ii) it appears to the chair of the meeting that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any person attending the meeting or ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner.
- (c) The chair of the meeting must adjourn a general meeting if directed to do so by the meeting.
- (d) When adjourning a general meeting, the chair of the meeting must:

 - (ii) containing the same information which such notice is required to contain.
- (f) No business may be transacted at an adjourned general meeting which could not properly have been transacted at the meeting if the adjournment had not taken place.

VOTING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

57. Voting: general

- (a) A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is duly demanded in accordance with the articles.
- (b) Whenever the capital of the company is divided into different classes of shares, all or any of the rights for the time being attached to any class of shares in issue may from time to time (whether or not the company is being wound up) be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of three-fourths in nominal value of the issued shares of that class or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of those shares.

58. Errors and disputes

- (a) No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid.

 - (ii) identifies the person appointed to be that shareholder's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;
 - (iii) is signed by or on behalf of the shareholder appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the directors may determine; and
 - (iv) is delivered to the company in accordance with the articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting (or adjourned meeting) to which they relate.
 - (b) The company may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.
 - (c) Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.
 - (d) Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:
 - (i) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting; and
 - (ii) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.
61. Delivery of proxy notices etc.
- (a) A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the company by or on behalf of that person.
 - (b) An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the company a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.

 - (c) If the chair of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the chair's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution.
