- make judgements and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent,

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 MARCH 2025

1. General information

Alpha Financial Markets Consulting MENA Limited (the "Company") is a company limited by shares, domiciled and registered in the UK. The registered number is 14638009 and the registered address is 60 Gresham Street, London, EC2V 7BB, United Kingdom.

2. Accounting policies

2.1 Basis of preparation of financial statements

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention unless otherwise specified within these accounting policies and in accordance with Financial Reporting Standard 101 'Reduced Disclosure Framework' and the Companies Act 2006.

The preparation of financial statements in compliance with FRS 101 requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires management to exercise judgement in applying the Company's accounting policies (see note 3).

The following principal accounting policies have been applied:

2.2 Going concern

In assessing the Company's ability to continue on a going concern basis for a period of at least 12 months from the approval of these financial statements (the "going concern period"), the Directors considered the Company's projected cash flows, access to intercompany funding from other group entities, cash liquidity and access to the group's existing borrowing facilities. No material uncertainties regarding the Company's ability to continue as a going concern were noted, as it continues to trade profitably and holds a net current assets position. The Company also has access to further funding, were this to be required, from the group's revolving credit facility.

After careful consideration, the Directors have a reasonable expectation that the Company's existing resources are adequate to meet its requirements over the going concern period. On this basis, the Directors have adopted the going concern basis in preparing the financial statements.

2.3 Change in balance sheet presentation

In the current year, the Company has adopted the Companies Act 2006 "Format 1" balance sheet presentation, in place of the IAS 1 format applied in the prior year. The comparative balance sheet has been re-presented on the same basis for consistency and comparability. This change is presentational only and has no impact on the Company's financial position, performance, or cash flows.

2.4 Reporting period

The financial statements have been prepared for the 12 months ended 31 March 2025, as compared to the prior year which covered a fourteen month period ended 31 March 2024.

The change in the length of the reporting period is due to the prior period being the first year of the Company's incorporation and therefore was longer than 12 months. The Company only traded for the final month of the prior period.

As a result, the amounts presented in the financial statements are not entirely comparable to those of the prior period.

2.7 Turnover

Recognition of turnover and client billing

Turnover consists of the value of work executed for clients during the year and expenses recharged, exclusive of VAT. Turnover is classified into net fee income and recharged expenses. Net fee income represents the Company's personnel, subcontractor and related expertise and services sold to clients. Recharged expenses are the recharge of costs incidental to fulfilling contracts including flights, subsistence and accommodation on which nil or negligible margin is earned by the Company.

The Company delivers services that have no alternative use to the Company (advice to clients, reports, etc.) as the services are specifically tailored to clients' projects and scope of work. The significant majority of the Company's turnover is contracted on a time and materials basis, where the performance obligation is to provide consultancy resources at agreed day rates. For such contracts, turnover is recognised over time, as consultant days worked are delivered. Modifications or extensions to such projects are recognised as services are delivered. Significant extensions, where the scope or price of the contract increases, are treated as separate contracts. Contracts accounted for on a time and materials basis are billed incrementally, typically monthly, for incurred time and materials.

Turnover recognition for fixed-fee projects is based on the satisfaction of performance obligations in line with contractual project milestones, depending on the nature of the performance obligations for the project. Material scope changes are managed via a new agreement with the client. Fixed-fee projects are typically billed in accordance with the nature of the performance obligations when a right to payment crystallises.

For most fixed-fee milestone projects, turnover is recognised at a point in time upon delivery of each performance obligation and these projects are typically billed as contractual milestones are delivered and the right to payment exists. Contractual milestones are only treated as separate performance obligations by the Company when they are distinct from the other elements in the contract and could provide a benefit to the customer without further work being completed. In limited circumstances, turnover from fixed fee milestone projects is recognised over time where the Company has an enforceable right to payment for performance completed to date, before the contractual milestone has been fully delivered.

Turnover is wholly attributable to the principal activities of the Company. For all turnover types, payment is typically due between 30 and 60 days after the invoice date or receipt of invoice, depending on the client and geography.

Recognition of contract receivables

Activity performance recognised as turnover in excess of invoices raised results in the recognition of a contract receivable, which is included within accrued income, up to the value of the relevant project delivery milestone, where applicable. On invoicing, the contract receivable is reclassified to trade receivables.

Recognition of contract liabilities

Where amounts have been invoiced in excess of work performed and turnover recognised, the excess is a contract liability and is included within deferred income, valued in line with the nature of the project and related performance obligations as described above and recognised in future periods.

2. Accounting policies (continued)

2.8 Pensions

Defined contribution pension plan

The Company operates a defined contribution plan for its employees. A defined contribution plan is a pension plan under which the Company pays fixed contributions into a separate entity. Once the contributions have been paid the Company has no further payment obligations.

The contributions are recognised as an expense in profit or loss when they fall due. Amounts not paid are shown in accruals as a liability in the Balance Sheet. The assets of the plan are held separately from the Company in independently administered funds.

2.9 Taxation

Tax is recognised in profit or loss except that a charge attributable to an item of income and expense recognised as other comprehensive income or to an item recognised directly in equity is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity respectively.

The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date in the countries where the Company operates and generates income.

Deferred tax balances are recognised in respect of all timing differences that have originated but not reversed by the balance sheet date, except that:

- The recognition of deferred tax assets is limited to the extent that it is probable that they will be recovered against the reversal of deferred tax liabilities or other future taxable profits, and
- Any deferred tax balances are reversed if and when all conditions for retaining associated tax allowances have been met.

Deferred tax balances are not recognised in respect of permanent differences except in respect of business combinations, when deferred tax is recognised on the differences between the fair values of assets acquired and the future tax deductions available for them and the differences between the fair values of liabilities acquired and the amount that will be assessed for tax. Deferred tax is determined using tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date.

2.10 Tangible fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets under the cost model are stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to bringing the asset to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management.

2.10 Tangible fixed assets (continued)

Depreciation is charged so as to allocate the cost of assets less their residual value over their estimated useful lives, using the straight-line method

Depreciation is provided on the following basis

Computer equipment	- 3 years

The assets' residual values, useful lives and depreciation methods are reviewed, and adjusted prospectively if appropriate, or if there is an indication of a significant change since the last reporting date

Gains and losses on disposals are determined by comparing the proceeds with the carrying amount and are recognised in profit or loss

2.11 Debtors

Short-term debtors are measured at transaction price, less any impairment. Loans receivable are measured initially at fair value, net of transaction costs, and are measured subsequently at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less any impairment.

2.12 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash is represented by cash in hand and deposits with financial institutions repayable without penalty on notice of not more than 24 hours. Cash equivalents are highly liquid investments that mature in no more than three months from the date of acquisition and that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash with insignificant risk of change in value.

2.13 Creditors

Creditors are obligations to pay for goods or services that have been acquired in the ordinary course of business from suppliers.

Creditors are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

2.14 Financial instruments

The Company recognises financial instruments when it becomes a party to the contractual arrangements of the instrument. Financial instruments are de-recognised when they are discharged or when the contractual terms expire. The Company's accounting policies in respect of financial instruments transactions are explained below.

Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value.

Financial assets

All recognised financial assets are subsequently measured in their entirety at either fair value or amortised cost, depending on the classification of the financial assets.

Fair value through profit or loss

All of the Company's financial assets are subsequently measured at fair value at the end of each reporting period, with any fair value gains or losses being recognised in profit or loss to the extent they are not part of a designated hedging relationship. The net gain or loss recognised in profit or loss includes any dividend or interest earned on the financial asset.

Impairment of financial assets

The Company recognises a loss allowance for expected credit losses on investments in debt instruments that are measured at amortised or at FVOCI. The amount of expected credit losses is updated at each reporting date to reflect changes in credit risk since initial recognition of the respective financial instrument.

The Company always recognises lifetime ECL for trade receivables and amounts due on contracts with customers. The expected credit losses on these financial assets are estimated based on the Company's historical credit loss experience, adjusted for factors that are specific to the debtors, general economic conditions and an assessment of both the current as well as the forecast direction of conditions at the reporting date, including time value of money where appropriate. Lifetime ECL represents the expected credit losses that will result from all possible default events over the expected life of a financial instrument.

Financial liabilities

Fair value through profit or loss

Financial liabilities are classified as at fair value through profit or loss, when the financial liability is held for trading, or is designated as at fair value through profit or loss. This designation may be made if such designation eliminates or significantly reduces a measurement or recognition inconsistency that would otherwise arise, or the financial liability forms part of a group of financial instruments which is managed and its performance is evaluated on a fair value basis, or the financial liability forms part of a contract containing one or more embedded derivatives, and IFRS 9 permits the entire combined contract to be designated as at fair value through profit or loss. Any gains or losses arising on changes in fair value are recognised in profit or loss to the extent that they are not part of a designated hedging relationship.

At amortised cost

Financial liabilities which are neither contingent consideration of an acquirer in a business combination, held for trading, nor designated as at fair value through profit or loss are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method. This is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a financial liability and of allocating interest expense over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash payments through the expected life of the financial liability, or where appropriate a shorter period, to the amortised cost of a financial liability.

2.15 Impact of new international reporting standards, amendments and interpretations

There are no new accounting standards or interpretations that have become effective in the current financial year that have had a material effect on the Company's financial statements. Similarly, no new standards or interpretations have had a material effect on the comparative period presented.

3. Judgements in applying accounting policies and key sources of estimation uncertainty

The preparation of financial information in accordance with IFRS requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and reported amounts of assets and liabilities, income and expenses.

Judgements

The Directors have made one judgement, excluding those involving estimations, in the process of applying the Company's accounting policies that are considered to have a significant effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements for the year ending 31 March 2025.

Turnover recognition

Turnover is the Company's most significant caption in the statement of comprehensive income. Whilst the majority of the Company's turnover is contracted on a time and materials basis, the Company also has some fixed-price milestone contracts. The recognition of turnover on such contracts involves consideration of the detailed contractual terms against the requirements of IFRS 15. The key judgements include assessment of whether turnover should be recognised over time or at a point in time, and whether the performance obligations under the contract have been met at the balance sheet date, to best reflect the transfer of services through the life of each contract.

Estimates

The Directors have not identified any key estimates that are considered to have a significant risk of a material adjustment within the next financial year.
